Sayings of the 2004 Big Sir Tom Robinson

It is hard to believe that my tenure as Big Sir is $\frac{1}{4}$ of the year over and I still have not found a "Taster". I did have one offer however it came with some baggage. The individual who offered wanted to determine which line would go first to the buffet. I naturally declined.

I feel pretty good in that I had only one complaint concerning seating and it was not the arrangement! There are still a few persons who move seating cards. This irritates the person who gets moved, but also, me. They come to me and complain and I had nothing to do with the movement. Please honor the placement of the cards. There are always enough seats, so everyone has a place to sit. Who knows, you may become acquainted with someone that you find extremely interesting.

Since this is our 20th year as a branch, I am asking the 10 charter members to join me at the head table and to say a few words about their early days as a new branch member. This month, Bill Hayes is the honoree.

Reminder – If you want to take part in the SIRS Day at the Giants on Thursday, July 22nd, you have to make your intentions known as it closes out on April 1st. There are applications at the "Travel Desk"

Ladies Day Dinner Dance, May 19th, is being held at Blakes at Boundary Oaks. The dance music will be provided by "The Diplomats". You have a choice of Beef Filet or Salmon. Wine will be served with dinner (2 bottles per table) and a "no host" bar at reduced prices. You get all of this for $25.00 per person. "Such a Deal" as they would say in New York. Hope to see you all there.

Our Guest Speaker for the March Luncheon is:

Lieutenant Commander Michael Lebsack is currently serving as the Chief of the Marine Environmental Response Division in Coast Guard Marine Safety Office San Francisco Bay. As the Division Chief he supervises daily operations to assess, investigate, and initiate responses to oil discharges, hazardous material releases, and potential weapons of mass destruction incidents for nearly 1900 miles of coastline and inland waterways in the northern half of California, Utah, Nevada, and Wyoming.

A native of Spokane, Washington, Lieutenant Commander Lebsack earned his commission and Bachelor of Science Degree from the United States Coast Guard Academy in New London, CT in 1991. In his 13 years of service, he has enjoyed a wide-array of operational assignments that have taken him throughout the United States with tours on the East Coast, Great Lakes, Alaska and California.

Lieutenant Commander Lebsack is married to the former Donna Lynn Cohen of Waterford, CT. They have three sons, Jacob (9), Jesse (5) and Jeremiah (3).

Terry Miller Area 2 Fishing Report for March, 2004

On Thursday, February 19th, some 24 members and guests of the Area 2 Fishing Group made their way to Emeryville for a "Day at the Races". As is usual for these gatherings, the weather cooperated (the day was overcast but no rain). And . . . most importantly, the track was fast. We, of course, had lunch at the fabulous Golden Gate Fields Turf Club and enjoyed a terrific buffet lunch. There was even a way to get seconds in the event you didn't get enough the first time through. Wow!!! Bob Olson, Branch 116, Chaired the event. As usual, the wives were the big winners. Funny how they calculate their winnings (no deductions for what they started with). Anything to make them happy. Lots of fun, and you missed a great time. Several of the wives had their picture taken with Jockey Adalberto Lopez. Lopez, Riding Burning Brite won the 3rd race which was in honor of our SIRS Fishing Group.

Next week (February 26 to 29th) is the International Sportsmen's Expo at the Pleasanton Fairgrounds. If you like boats, fishing gear, rifles and shotguns and a plethora of trips for outdoor activity, that's the place to go. You'll see every size, shape and description of outdoor enthusiast (and every sort of scruffy beard) taking in the scenery. Worth the price of admission.

The Fishing Group is almost over the "looking and talking" stage and back into real fishing again. The year's first formal trip is to Comanche Reservoir in the foothills outside of Stockton. The name of the game is "Trout", and there should be plenty of good ones for the taking. For accommodations, this time we'll be staying in luxury in Angels Camp in time-share condos. Trip will be from March 22 to 26th. There's still room and anyone interested can call Harold Knudson the fishmaster for the trip at 925-283-7978.

Things then heat up for the Collins Lake (near Marysville) trip for trout and perhaps kokanee April 13 through 16th. In May we're off to McSwain/McClure Reservoirs (outside of Turlock) from May 3 through 7th. This is a "camp only trip", and the rugged outdoorsmen are easily separated from the others (by who goes on this one). From there we have the Norden Trip to Tom Hensley's cabin for fly and lake trout fishing (June 20 to 25th) and to Bill Hooy's cabin in Grass Valley for fly and lake trout fishing (July 25 to July 29th). Don't forget the "family social" expected to be held in mid-June. There's much more to come, so attend one of our meetings (usually on the 4th Thursday of every month) at the Legends Sports Bar and Grill at the Diablo Golf Course at 4050 Port Chicago Highway in Concord, commencing at 8:30 a.m. For further information, please contact Bill Hooy (Big Fish)(925-686-2627); Terry Miller (Branch 116 Coordinator)(925-686-9298) or Tom Hensley (Secretary/Treasurer)(925-937-0605). All SIR members and guests are welcome and, indeed, encouraged, to participate in the fishing trips as well as attend the monthly meetings.

$ums In Retirement Financial Group

The March meeting of "$ums In Retirement "will be held on Wednesday, MARCH 24, 2004.

The meeting will be held at Diablo Creek Golf Course (Grill Room), starting at 8:00am. We will have breakfast at anytime after 7:00am.....The "Hot Cakes" and coffee are excellent.

The January $ums in Retirement Speaker was Tom Kopas of Pring Turner Capital Group Following are Tom's thoughts about the 2004 INVESTMENT OUTLOOK

We see a very important shift occurring in 2004 that will likely reverse the most recent pattern and place the advantage squarely with quality companies known for consistency in earnings and dividend payments. While we continue to expect the bull market to extend its gains, portfolio tactics will be adjusted to take advantage of the normal cyclical changes currently taking place. For instance, profit growth has already peaked for this cycle. Although corporate profits will continue to grow, they will do so at a much slower pace than 2003. A decelerating profit cycle means companies with stable earnings, higher dividends and quality balance sheets will likely outperform the more speculative lower-quality issues. Our conservative investor portfolios own core holdings in quality companies and should benefit in this environment.

As 2004 began, another very important shift has taken place as our proprietary Inflation Barometer has just moved to a rare reading of 100%, indicating that all of the components within the barometer are forecasting higher commodity prices ahead. To add fuel to the potential inflation fire, Chairman Alan Greenspan has publicly stated the Federal Reserve intends to keep an "easy money" policy in place well into the economic expansion. With early alarms sounding, we think the Fed may be making a mistake and risks letting the inflation genie out of the bottle. This will certainly serve to complicate the investment decision-making process in 2004, as any re-kindling of inflation will have dramatic impact on stocks, bonds, and the U.S. dollar. Our bottom line conclusion for the stock market, which has not experienced a 5% or more correction in price since the bull phase began last March, is that it will likely experience at least a 10% setback sooner rather than later in the year.

The Effect of Higher Interest Rates on U.S. Treasury Note Values

Example: $10,000 – 10 year U.S. T-Note with 4% yield

Approximate Value at Various Future Interest Rates

Today — 4.0%	$10,000
4.5%	$9,600
5.0%	$9,225
5.5%	$8,860

For the bond market, rising inflation and interest rates means lower fixed-rate bond prices ahead. Right now, the risk of capital losses in fixed rate notes and bonds does not seem worth the relatively low yield they currently offer. The table illustrates the effect of higher interest rates in U.S. Treasury note values. For example, a mere 1.5% increase in the 10-year U.S. Treasury note yield (from 4% to 5.5%) will result in an approximate 12% loss of the principle value, thereby wiping out about three years of income return. For the time being, we favor adjustable or floating rate securities as a safer alternative.

All in all, 2004 is shaping up as a very favorable environment for quality, income-producing stocks that are the foundation of your portfolio. Any near-term market weakness will present opportunities to add to portfolio positions in those areas we think will respond best to this phase of the business cycle.

Area 2 Computer User Group

Meetings of the Area 2 Computer Users Group are held at the Social Hall of the Walnut Creek United Methodist Church, 1543 Sunnyvale Ave. (off N. Main, one block north of the Treat/Geary/N. Main intersection). Meetings are normally held the 3rd Thursday of each month from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. All SIR members are invited to attend these informative sessions.

The next meeting will be March 18, 2004. Dean Steichen, from Branch 8, will show us how to upgrade our computers including adding/replacing hard drives, RAM, CD/DVD burners, and cards.

Never seen the inside of a computer? This is your chance. It's easy and fun. Additionally, we will address your computer questions and problems and will identify some cool sites to visit on the Internet. For more information please visit our web site at: <http://home.alt.net/~area2computer/>.

Some Barely Funny Computer Humor:

One day a young man was walking down a road when a frog called to him. "Boy, if you kiss me, I will turn into a beautiful princess."

The young man picked up the frog, smiled at it and put it in his pocket.

Now the frog was upset. "Boy, what is the matter?" the frog cried. "I have told you that I am a beautiful princess, and if you kiss me, I'll be yours."

The young man took the frog from his pocket, looked at it, smiled and said: "Look, I'm a computer programmer. I have no time for a girl friend, but a talking frog is cool!"

Have You Heard This One?

Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson go camping and pitch their tent under the stars. During the night, Holmes wakes his companion and says: "Watson, look up at the stars, and tell me what you deduce."

Watson says enthusiastically: "I see millions of stars, and even if a few of those have planets, it's quite likely there are some planets like Earth, and if there are a few planets like Earth out there, there might also be life."

Holmes replies: "Watson, you idiot. Somebody stole our tent."
