Sayings of 2005 Big Sir, Ron Domer

Four years have passed since al Qaeda terrorists attacked our country, killing 3,000 Americans and destroying an icon of our civilization. Like Pearl Harbor, September 11 is day that should live in infamy. However, for most of us life goes on pretty much as in the days before the attacks. It seems almost surreal. I grew up during WWII and after Pearl Harbor life did not go on as before for the civilian population. There was gas rationing, food rationing and many consumer products were no longer produced so that munitions and war materiel could be made. Women went out into the work force. Billboards were everywhere in Oak Ridge, Tennessee advising that "loose lips sink ships." Kids like me collected cans and newspapers and turned them in to aid the war effort. We even collected kapok to be used in making life jackets. In short, everyone was effected in one way or another. Like I said, this time it seems surreal.

Mother nature unleashed a catastrophe on our Gulf Coast in September that has destroyed billions of dollars worth of facilities, made thousands homeless and brought out some of the best in human nature and some of the worst. Countless people have taken in evacuees, provided food, water and shelter, rescued stranded people and on and on. The Corps of Engineers and others have worked around the clock to pump down New Orleans. Others have taken advantage of the situation to loot and destroy property that was spared by the hurricane. I was with my daughter in Hoover, Alabama before the storm made landfall. Motels were booked up, Home Depot and Lowe's were full of folks buying plywood to take back to the Gulf to board up windows. When I got to Hoover regular gas was $2.89 and when I left it was $3.49. The part of the storm that hit Hoover was mainly high winds and some rain. Lots of trees came down and power was out for much of the area. Fortunately, no trees came down on my daughter's house so all we had to deal with was debris and the power outage. Many folks back there have said to me in the past that they would have a hard time living in California with "all those earthquakes."

On a lighter note: A country boy got on a Greyhound bus and sat down beside a slick looking dude from the city. The city slicker looked the boy over and decided to have little fun and make some money at the same time. "Let's play a game to pass the time," the slicker said, "and to make it worthwhile I'll give you a dollar for every question you ask me that I can't answer and I'll give you fifty cents for every question I ask you that you can't answer. And, you can ask the first question." "Okay," said the country boy. After thinking for a minute the boy said, "how come there's no pile of dirt outside when a rabbit digs his hole?" The slicker thought a while and said, "I give up. Here's your dollar, how come there's no pile of dirt?" "Because he starts at the bottom," said the boy. The slicker, thinking he had the boy, said, "aha, my question is how does he get to the bottom?" "I don't know," said the boy, "here's your fifty cents!"

More Tennessee colloquialisms:

Sherf: The highest law official in a county. “Maw, I hear tell the sherf’s got one of them new fangled helicopters. We’re gonna have to move the still or cut him in fer another gallon a week.”

Warnt: A legal document. “Better hide out Lonnie, I hear the sherf’s got a warnt out on you.”

Tole: To inform. “Damn, Lonnie, I tole you not to be siphonin’ gas outta the sherf’s car!”

Backerds: In reverse. “I tell you, Maw, that Lonnie lies like a dog. That boy’d climb a greased pole backerds afore he’d tell the truth.”

Area 2 Fishing Report

Dick Thomson

Vacations are the headline for this month. Most of the fishermen are traveling with their families or otherwise engaged during the August-September period. But there were a few, notably Bob (“crazy about salmon fishing”) Stein, who kept up our traditions. Bob and Ed Dijkman headed two six pack trips on the Danny out of Emeryville to Duxbury Reef out the Golden Gate for salmon. The first was on September 8 and Branch 8 members Ed, Bob and Bill Hooy went along with Terry Miller of Branch 116 and two of Ed’s cousins from Holland. A great day and great fishing. Lots of boats, but only 10 fish (12 is the limit). They were mostly BIG, so this made up for the lack of numbers. Bill Hooy caught the biggest (a 30 pounder) and it went from there. Nothing like fresh caught salmon to put on the grill that very night. Bob’s next trip was September 19th and they outdid themselves. Bob wound up with two BIG smokers.

Can this great out-of-the-Gate fishing last??? Maybe, but surely the fishing in the Delta has to pick up. Rumor has it that it has picked up. Viera’s reports 20 to 25 sizeable salmon caught by fishermen launching out of there over the weekend of September 17-18th. The bad news is that there were about 70 boats out trying to do the catching. But, this can only improve as our fishermen get out to try their luck.

On September 18th Richard Bal took another group to British Columbia for its superb salmon and trout fishing. Jack Waddell went along with several other participants. As before, the results can only be spectacular.

As far as the calendar for the next 3 months, the fishing group still has planned one or more trips to McAvoy’s (Pittsburg) in the Delta for stripers; day trips for newbies to San Pablo Reservoir for trout as conditions permit (Tom Hensley is Fishmaster); trip to Viera’s in the Delta for salmon/stripers (date is open but Terry Miller is Fishmaster); trip to Eagle Lake for trout October 17-24 (Richard Bal is Fishmaster); trip for salmon in Oregon in mid-October (date open but Ed Dijkman is Fishmaster); and trip to the Sacramento/Feather River for salmon (date is open but Richard Bal is Fishmaster). Much more is planned, but this summarizes the next 3 or so months.

If you want to hear more, please come to one of our meetings on the 4th Thursday of the Month at the Legends Sports Bar and Grill at the Diablo Creek Golf Course at 4050 Port Chicago Highway in Concord. Meetings start at 8:30 a.m. For further information, please contact Bill Hooy (Big Fish)(925-686-2627); Dick Thomson (Branch 116 Coordinator) (925-785-7600) or Terry Miller (Treasurer/Secretary)(925-686-9298). All SIR members and guests are welcome and, indeed, encouraged, to participate in the fishing trips as well as attend the monthly meetings.

October, 2005 Sunshine Report

Bill Harrington

As I mentioned at the September luncheon, Roy Miller was seriously hurt when he fell down the courthouse steps in Martinez. He landed on his cheekbone and wrist, fracturing the latter. Apparently the fall caused serious damage to his eyes and he has had one surgery and expects to have two more surgeries in the near future.

Non-Partisan Political Humor

Dan Quayle, Newt Gingrich and Bill Clinton are traveling in a car together in the Midwest. A tornado comes along and whirls them up into the air and tosses them thousands of yards away. When they come down and extract themselves from the vehicle, they realize they're in the land of Oz.

They decide to go to see the Wizard of Oz.

Quayle says, "I'm going to ask the Wizard for a brain."

Gingrich says, "I'm going to ask the Wizard for a heart."

Clinton says, "Where's Dorothy?"

Sympathy from a Lady Vol

A Lady Vols Basketball player was engrossed in a newspaper while sitting in an airport waiting area. One of the headlines in the paper blared:

"12 Brazilian Soldiers Killed."

She shook her head at the sad news and turned to the elderly gentleman sitting next to her. Fighting back tears she expressed her deep sympathy for the soldiers and their families. The elderly gentleman was touched by her show of emotion.

Then in a quiet tone she asked, "How many is a Brazilian?"

Tennessee Rules of Etiquette

In General...

1. Never take a beer to an interview.
2. It's considered tacky to take a cooler to church.
3. Even if you're certain that you're included in the will, it's rude to drive a U-haul to the funeral.

Weddings

1. Livestock, usually is a poor choice for a wedding gift.
2. For the groom, at least, rent a tux. A leisure suit with a cummerbund and a clean bowling shirt can create a tacky appearance.
3. Though uncomfortable, say 'yes' to socks and shoes for this special occasion.

9 Hole Golf Group

Dick Chaffee

On September 28, 20 golfers participated in our 9 hole tournament at Buchanan Fields. Pete Lucido and Al Leschot tied for individual scoring honors with 36s. Troy Powell followed with a 37.

There was no team scoring since David Geary missed the tournament and no one, as yet, has mastered his handicapping system. But David promises to be there next time and will handicap the teams.

A major opportunity exists! Al Leschot has donated 18 Top Flight yellow balls for Closest to the Pin prizes.

Al has suggested that yellow is a significant upgrade over white. Thanks, Al.

The rest of us need to get moving, however. Al won Closest to the Pin honors on hole 3, and of course, was awarded 3 yellow balls. Only 15 left.

The complete Closest to the Pin winners are:
Hole 3: 1. Al Leschot 2. Pete Lucido 3. NA
Hole 5: 1. Will Cabral 2. Bill Harrington 3. Jai Yee

We will be playing at Buchanan Fields on October 5th and 19th. If you want to play you can email Dick Chaffee at rwchaffee@sbcglobal.net, call the SIR Golf Club Hot Line at 906-5355, or call Jim Nachtweih at 838-7417.

Driving the Wrong Way

A Tennessee senior citizen was driving down the free-way, when his car phone rang.

Answering, he heard his wife's voice urgently warning him, "Herman, I just heard on the news that there's a car going the wrong way on Interstate 40 right here in Knoxville. Please be careful!"

"Darn," said Herman, "It's not just one car. It's hundreds of them!"
